N.F.L. Playoffs

By Garrett Hyser

The N.F.L. Playoffs have already started and there is just 7 games left until we decide the best team. In the A.F.C. Baltimore Ravens play the Tennessee Titans, in the other game for the divisional playoff, the San Diego Chargers play the Pittsburgh Steelers. Whoever wins those two games has the right to play in the A.F.C. Championship Game. In the N.F.C. the Philadelphia Eagles are playing the New York Giants, also the Arizona Cardinals play the Carolina Panthers. The winner of those games will meet in the N.F.C. Championship Game. Whoever wins their Divisional Championship Game will meet in a much anticipated Super Bowl XLIII.

Movie Review: Bedtime Stories

2 stars out of five

By Josh Walker

The movie, Bedtime Stories, wasn't very good. There were only a couple of funny parts. Adam Sandler had a bad performance. So just wait until it comes out on DVD and rent it. It's not worth going to the expensive theaters.
